OUTLINE.—The market position was very elegant. The last bid of 25 cents was 25½ cents late in the day, which was a little more than 2½ cents above the previous day's record price and record late.

The New Orleans Circular of May 11— The market position was very elegant. The market rates of about 2500 have been paid, with a few more to come.

The following quotations of Cotton, Boxes, Bales, Caskets and Coffins, are from the New Orleans Price Circular:

The general business of our market has been held but a moderate extent during the past week, and the market position is still in the same condition as it was at the time of the opening of the market.

There has been a little more activity, and prices have made some headway, but there has been no real movement.

Prices have been somewhat in favor of buyers.
